BRADLEY SUCCESSFUL IN DRIVE

Harding High Eleven Defeats Delaware

TWO SAFETIES GIVE VICTORY TO LOCAL TEAM

First Half Featured by Listless Play of Both Elevens

ANOTHER N. C. O. VICTIM

Fast and Furious Brand of Game in Final Quarter; Use Aerial Attack

Delaware, O., Nov. 12.—Two safeties scored in the first half gave Harding High school a 40 victory over Delaware High school in the football game here this morning. Several hundred Marion residents were on hand in addition to the Harding fans.

The first half of the game was featured by listless play on both sides. Marion had a slight advantage and kept the ball in Delaware territory. Early in the first period, Marion knocked its way to the Maryland line but was unable to score. Delaware received the ball on downs, Campbell dropped back for a pass which was blocked and received over the goal line by Marion two points.

Six minutes later Harding added two more points to its total when the Delaware center made a bad pass, over the line and was recovered by a Delaware man.

McAninch, Berry and Merchant had been making consistent gains for Harding during the first half but showed up as the game moved into the second quarter and went for several first downs without success.

Start of Game

The Orange and Blue initiated the second half with an offensive which carried the ball down the field 20 yards. Following a plunge to the 18 yard marker, Klein and Campbell met around and Delaware punted.

The Harding runners started back with an attack that looked like a touchdown. Reaching the 20 yard stripe, however, they were stopped.

One of the feature plays of the game came in this period when Campbell passed to Warner for a gain of 40 yards. Thrown on Harding's 20 yard line he got up and ran over the goal line but the play was called down on the 15 yard stripe.

First, Harding, reaching football featured the final period with both squads launching threatening aerial attacks. Campbell passed to Warner and Weiser for gains of 25 and 25 yards respectively. Delaware completed several other passes for shorter gains. Two were intercepted and a number incomplete.

McAninch sent a pretty pass to Lewis.

Shaw to Sell Novel He Did 40 Years Ago

American Films Finally Capture Him; Raps Public's "Appreciation" of Art

(Copyright, 1926, by I. N. S.)

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The American film industry has finally captured George Bernard Shaw. For a fee of $100,000, the veteran writer is about to sign a contract for the filming of "Castel Byron's Profession," a novel of prize fighting, written more than 40 years ago.

Shaw said he never thinks of the book "without a shudder at the marvellousness of his escape from becoming a successful novelist at the age of 26."

Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight champion, may be the hero, with Jack Dempsey, the man he dethroned, as the villain.

"Castel Byron's Profession" was Shaw's fourth novel. It was written in 1882, but was not published for six years, because no publisher would accept it.

The story first saw the light of day in the now defunct socialist weekly, "Today," running serially, because Shaw, being connected with the periodical, furnished the copy free of charge. It has since been published in book form, but without profit to Shaw until the present opportunity to sell it for use in the movies.

In the preface to a recent edition, Shaw wrote:

"I have not if these exercises of a raw apprentice break loose again and insist on their right to live. The world never did know, chalk from choice in matters of art, and never here gun pulled and went for several first downs without success."

Interior of Epworth M. E. Church

Formal Reopening of Epworth M. E. Church Will Be Held Sunday with Special Services Addressed by Bishop Joseph F. Berry, Philadelphia

When Epworth M. E. Church, Center and Vine sts., is formally opened Sunday with special services, the congregation will see for the first time what an investment of $25,000 can do toward renovating and redecorating an old church. From basement to belfry the church has undergone many changes. It represents the appearance of a new church on the outside.

The elaborate completion of the work, special services have been planned during the morning and night. Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., L. L. D., of Philadelphia, dean of the Methodist Board of Bishops, will deliver sermon at both services.

Special programs will also mark the church's reopening. Special music has been arranged by the choir, augmented by the organ and church quartet.

Repairs to the church have been extensive, according to Dr. R. L. George, pastor, and members of the various church boards.

Church Redecorated

The entire interior has been redecorated in two shades of rose. Floors throughout the entire structure have been sand blasted and revarnished, giving them the appearance of new floorings.

Pews in the main auditorium have been retouched to look like new. Chandeliers have been replaced with lamps. Probably the most noticeable improvement is found in the lighting arrangement. Entirely new fixtures have been installed, including two great central chandeliers, one in the main auditorium and the other in the Sunday school room.

Surrounding these large central fixtures are smaller lighting and lighting fixtures, including new chandeliers, and a number of old fashioned wrought iron with splattered glass and of various sizes to harmonize with the design of the church.

In short the new plan of illumination is the latest word in lighting architecture. Next features, corresponding to the re-painted types, adorn the walls.

New Heating System

An improvement that will contribute much to comfort and convenience is the new vapor heating system which has just been installed. By using the system it is possible to regulate the temperature of the church, except the distance from the boilers.

As an indication of the size of the new heating unit it filled a freight car.

BY GILMORE HIEFT

Hundreds of persons this afternoon jammed every available inch of standing space at the intersection of Church and Main streets, watching and waiting. Those that were in advantageous positions let their eyes take two minutes to the clock in the tower of the courthouse. Others glanced nervously at their own timepieces. The hour hand stood exactly at two and the minute indicator crept slowly, ever so slowly, to the 12 mark. At last the zero hour was reached and a hush fell over the assemblage.

The question pondered at each individual's brain and came, "What a week to be stretched and overstrained. Where was 'Tireless Bud' Bradley? He who had placed $1,000 wager that he could drive an automobile for 110 hours without stopping to eat, rest or sleep.

Was he coming? Was he safe? These and a host of other questions were whispered through the crowd during that time of silent suspense. How long it lasted, no one knows, no one cares. It might have been seconds, it might have been several minutes, it seemed ages.

Great Shouts

Mon-o-o, Mon-o-o, Mon-o-o! A great shout went up from those on E. Main and is taken up by men, women and children and the air was filled with the great noise of cheering throngs.

"That crowd would not be mistaken. That 'Tireless Bud' Bradley was driving and none other. That first cheer was answered with shouts of 'Here he comes, up Church-st.' 'Make a path for him to the track.' 'Atta boy, Bud!'

In truth, the blue closed car was moving slowly up Main-st and its driver, huddled down in a corner was apparently just 'hanging on' until the finish. He seemed ready to slip from the car.

MACHINE GUN EXPERTS ARE WORKHOUSE GUARDS

Expect To Frustrate Any Attempt Made "To Get" Pat McDermott

McDermott murder who is to go on trial here Dec. 6 on a charge of first degree murder.

Superintendent John Boyer, has transformed the workhouse into a fortress against to forestall any attempt to get Pat. He credits his informant, whose name he refused to divulge. It was the same man, Boyer said, who four years ago told him of an impending attack on the workhouse, just before the famous battle when four deputy bank bandits were shot to death on a farm to the north of Canton after kidnapping Chief of Police John "Jiggs" Wise, then a sergeant in the department.

"Four years ago," Boyer said today, "this same man told us that an attempt was going to be made to get Norman Warden, held here under the name of 'O'Klahoma Slim.' We reinforced our guard then and Tommy Saxton and his gang came and were killed in the ensuing gun fight. I always have believed that they came to get O'Klahoma Slim, but that their plans went wrong when 'Jiggs' stopped them."

Establishing of Municipal Building Inspection Office Depends Upon Funds, Claim

Council's Policy of Economy May Prove an Obstacle to Favorable Action on Proposed New Department, Inquiry Among Officials Reveals

Action on proposed establishment of a municipal building inspection department in Marion hinges almost solely upon the question of city finances, inquiry among local officials indicates. Three ordinances which provide for an inspection service were introduced at City Council meeting Monday night, when it was decided to defer definite action in order that the members might give the matter more thorough consideration and obtain an estimate of public sentiment.

While members of Council are inclined to favor the proposal and regard it as a great need, they are concerned over a policy of economy which has been pursued in the past. It is claimed that the department is a desirable one for the city and that it is a matter of public safety.

Finance Improving Municipal finances are gradually improving, it is claimed.

The proposed department would have charge of the inspection of buildings, bridges, and other structures in the city. ELECTION OF TRUSTEE BOARD SET FOR DEC. 13

Formal Notice Posted by Director W. B. Strayer Following Conference

Election of a board of trustees to have charge of Marion's police pension fund, authorized recently in adoption of an ordinance by City Council, will take place Dec. 13, it was announced today. Date for the election was agreed upon at a recent conference between Mayor W. B. Strayer and representatives of the police force and formal notice has been posted by Mr. Strayer in accordance with provisions of the ordinance.

The law provides that the board of trustees shall consist of the Director of Public Safety and five members of the police force, who will have full control of the fund and payments therefrom for relief and pensions.

There is now a balance of approximately $700 standing to the credit of the pension fund in the city treasury and this amount, it is said, will probably be augmented next year by contributions from local citizens and business firms who have pledged their intention of making donations. Most of the $700 was obtained as a result of the pension fund benefit concert given in September.

The state law authorizes City Council to levy an annual tax and to expend the proceeds of a mill for the pension fund but it is the intention of the

BUICK STANDARD SIX SEDAN WINS SO DOES "TIRELESS BUD BRADLEY"

Both Car and Driver Stand the Gruelling Test of 110 Hours Without Stopping

Buick Standard Six Brings Home the Bacon

Bud Bradley never would have made it without a superlative car. Think of going 110 hours without changing or adding oil, then look at the condition of the oil now on display in our show room. We have also removed the pistons and placed them beside the oil exhibit. The new vacuum cleaned crankcase and oil filter made it possible and both are standard equipment on a Buick.

The rest of the car you can see for yourself.

Bud's Buick Will Be Sold To The Highest Bidder

Saturday, November 20, this car will go to the highest bidder. It will carry a new car guarantee. It will have a new set of tires, for the present tires are to be sold by H. R. Mapes Rubber Store. The car will be in A-1 condition. Think of buying a car that has been under constant even heat for 1500 miles, driven at a steady slow speed by an experienced driver.

SEALED BIDS ONLY. Use the coupon below and bring to the Buick Garage. Bids close Saturday, November 20. Get yours in early.

This is the Personnel of The Marion Buick Co.

The Local Dealers That Build the Factory Which Guarantees Buick Worth

The Building

The Marion Buick Company is housed in a fine, beautiful fireproof building—one of the best garages in Central Ohio—that has a show room 32x81, with tile floor, great window expanse, ladies' rest room and all conveniences for the display of cars and the comfort of guests.

Behind the display room is a large shop and storage, 81x36 feet in size. Convenient exits and entrances give ready access to this part of the building. Since every seventh car in Marion County is a Buick, the repair business is most extensive and a most efficient factory system is necessary.

On the second floor, well equipped offices are located. These are separated by glass partitions and comprise Sales Offices, Executive Offices, Business Offices and a Replacement and Accessory Department.

The entire building is designed to express stability and efficiency. It suggests a company able to offer a guarantee backed up by ample resources.

The Company

The Marion Buick Company was organized in 1913 and has been under the same name ever since. The present organization took control in the spring of 1920. This is the official personnel:

J. L. PRICE—President and General Manager

FRED E. GUTHERY—Vice President

E. A. PRICE—Secretary HARVEY J. PRICE—Treasurer

Directors: J. L. Price, Fred E. Guthery, E. A. Price, H. G. Price, O. C. Kirts

J. L. Price has been the active head of the organization since the present company took control. He personally guides all affairs of the organization and is tireless in his efforts to make Buick supreme in Marion.

Carl E. Danner has been sales-manager for seven years. Rated as an expert automobile salesman, he always leads in sales of both new and used cars. His assistants are W. G. Minshall, Chas. E. Baldwin and Paul W. Ellis.

O. C. Kirts has been office manager since 1922. His pleasant smile and business-like methods are known to all Buick owners. Mabel E. Grove is office secretary.

Frank G. Creviston heads the Replacement and Accessories Division. He ranks as one of the most efficient stockmen in the country. A full line of genuine Buick parts is kept in stock and a complete line of accessories.

W. Irl Reasoner is shop superintendent. He is well known for his efficient service department. His efficient mechanics include Arthur Ullery, Frank Dawson, W. R. Green, Mike McGraw, Wm. Rister and Lloyd E. Davis.

The battery department is in charge of Lowell (Cy) Haines. A Duco touch-up shop is also included in this part of the building, together with oil service.

All factory drive-aways of new cars are in charge of Lawrence Foreman. He is one of the best known men in this particular line.

The immaculate cleanliness of shop, show-room and storage is caused by the work of Virgil McLaughlin.

The whole organization believes that the Buick is the best car built and does everything to make service equal to the quality of the car.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST TO BE CONCERT SOLOIST

Maxwell Coffee Orchestra To Support Toscha Seidel in Linked Program

Toscha Seidel, the young Russian violinist who in a comparatively short period of time has risen to one of the highest places in the realm of music, is to be the featured soloist of the new Maxwell Coffee Concert, to be broadcast on Station WAFB, WIR, WBY, WBB, and KDKA, at 10-11 o'clock, Sunday night, November 14.

Supporting Seidel in this concert will be the Maxwell Coffee Orchestra, with Nathaniel Shilkret, conducting. This orchestra, which plays such a prominent part in the Maxwell Series, renders each week a complete program, which in itself, without the soloists, would constitute a most enjoyable concert.

As a suitable offering for the concert, a violin solo, which Mr. Seidel will draw from his repertoire, Mr. Shilkret has arranged a program of Oriental selections.

In the coming Maxwell Coffee Concert, Toscha Seidel will play on a violin made by the master violin maker of Cremona, Italy, Stradivari, or Stradivarius, as the name is given in the Latin inscription.

Toscha Seidel was born in Odessa, Russia, in 1900, his mother being a school teacher and his father engaged in a mercantile business. The only one in his family who was musically inclined, was an uncle, who was a well known violinist. The age of three, Toscha showed the first signs of following in his uncle's footsteps.

At the age of eight he had mastered the Russian Concerto, and in 1912 he was accepted by Professor Leopold Auer as a scholarship pupil. For six years he studied with this famous master, and made his first public appearance in Christchurch in 1915. His first American tour was in 1917, and as he repeated his concert from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard, his admirers increased.

In addition to his appearance in concert, Seidel has appeared many times as soloist with many of America's leading symphony orchestras.

Sheldon Lester will be the whistling entertainer on the program.

NO SENSATIONAL DISCOVERIES ON RADIO HORIZON

Fans Assured That Stabilization Point Is Reached in Field

A new radio year has started, and its light to the millions of fans is the assurance that the gossip that "revolutionary" inventions are in the offing is simply the static interruptions of wild imaginations. Radio has been proven thoroughly stabilized and during the coming year the chief concern of fans will be tuning in until they locate the program that best suits their desires.

The recent radio exhibitions have displayed the latest achievements of radio inventors and manufacturers. The new models have reflected improvements and refinements without any revolutionary changes. Those national displays are indicative of the future of radio—steady progress without sensational discoveries. In other words, the fundamental principles of radio have been standardized.

This condition is a happy one for the entire radio family. It will mean the addition of thousands of more fans during the coming months—these being recruited from that conservative element that has been waiting until radio had been "perfected" before investing in a receiving set.

It also will give additional joy to many of the regular fans who, for somewhat similar reasons, have been using good but bulky and not at all handsome sets. These now can, without any economical quality investment in sets that will fit in with the other furnishings of their home.

In fact one of the outstanding features of the radio shows was the display of receiving sets that are ornamental as well as utilitarian.

USED CARS

A black and white illustration of a vintage open-top car, likely from the 1920s or 30s, shown from a side profile. The car has large spoked wheels and a boxy body. It is positioned in the lower left corner of the advertisement, partially overlapping the 'USED CARS' headline.

"UNCLE JOE" TO BE BURIED IN HIS HOME CITY

Danville, Stunned by Cannon's Death, Puts on Mourning; Funeral Probably Tuesday

Danville, Ill., Nov. 13. Although stunned by the death of its most illustrious citizen, Joseph Gurney Cannon, affectionately known everywhere as "Uncle Joe," Danville today is putting out its badges of mourning, running its flags to half-mast and preparing to bear the body to the grave.

Funeral services will not be held until next week, possibly Tuesday, and will be at the residence. Interment will follow in the Cannon lot in Spring Hill Cemetery, Rev. Thomas N. Loring, who was made at the ground-breaking ceremony for the new, dignified Methodist Episcopal Church in Danville, when he turned a spadeful of soil on the site of the new building. He was invited to participate in the ceremony being in August, but a cold kept him away.

"Uncle Joe" contracted the cold during the summer of 1925, when he was in Danville, and it weakened him considerably. During the winter, however, as the days when his great interest in the and fall of national legislation, he fought against ill health and was able to work up to appear down town, when he purchased his favorite cigar.

SECTION HAND HELD FOR CLUBBING, KURTING GIRL

Police Unable To Establish Connection Between Man and Fiend, However

Thomas N. J. Black, Gray, 40, section hand at the Illinois Penitentiary, Rock Island, was held in custody yesterday by police for the murder of a young girl, the daughter of a section hand, who was found dead in a ditch near Woodville.

Gray was arrested by a patrolman yesterday after he was alleged to have clubbed the girl, located her on the road with a pick, thrown her body into a ditch, and then returned to his home in an attempt to escape.

Tolson police, who questioned Gray on the theory that he may have been connected with a series of murders and outrages upon Illinois women, attributed to a "madman," declared today that they were unable to establish any connection between Gray and the crimes.
